

CAPTAIN'S CATCH-UP

Captain Webb Primary School Newsletter

21st October 2019

Dear Parents/carers,

'Stargazers'

Year 5 parents and carers were invited into school to work with their children this week. They researched parts of the solar system and produced A3 posters. These will be created into a book, which will be on display in reception for all visitors to have a look at. Thank you to all who attended, we do hope you enjoyed working with your child.

SEND Drop in Session

Just to remind you, we will be holding our first SEND drop in session on Wednesday 13th November 9am - 10am. If you have a child on the SEND register or a concern and would like some information on how IASS (Information, advice and support service) can support you, please pop along. We look forward to seeing you there.

Children collected by someone else

If your children are being collected by someone other than the usual person who collects them. Could we please ask for you to notify your child's class teacher by Dojo message or contact the school office in advance, so that we are sure they have received the message.

Book Review of the Week

The Midnight Gang by David Walliams

'When the clock strikes midnight most children are fast asleep but for the Midnight Gang the journey is just beginning. This is a story about five children in a wonderfully incentive and eccentric hospital. It will take you on an unmissable midnight adventure'.

'This book is one of my favourites because it is funny and the characters are interesting. Sally is my favourite character because of what she does, you'll have to read it to find out!' Macy - Year 5
